Pneumatic and hydraulic drill rigs

Simple and robust!

Since 1974, WOLF, our partner in Brazil, has been manufacturing rock drilling equipment. In 50 years of existence, WOLF has acquired total control of its production, from the hammer to the complete drill rig, either pneumatic or hydraulic.

Today, WOLF collaborates with more than 35 distributors spread across five continents, to offer quality, high-tech equipment, which has remained simple, robust and easy to maintain.
